Stewardship Program > Engage Communities in Environmental Stewardship

The South Tahoe Environmental Education Coalition (STEEC) is a network of more than 20 local agencies and organizations that collaborate to bring environmental education resources to the Tahoe Basin. As stated in our mission and goals, STEEC is "dedicated to bringing high quality environmental education programs and projects to Lake Tahoe youth." STEEC has created and implemented new programs for Lake Tahoe Unified School District (LTUSD) schools, reaching thousands of students each year.
